

Rosé

---

|  | Glass175ml | Bottle |
|--|----------------|--------|
| 2019 Syrah/Grenache 'Le Campuget'Chateau de Campuget, Costières de Nîmes, France | 6              | 23     |

---

A top quality estate producing Rhône-style wines at Languedoc prices. This Syrah-led blend is pale pink in colour, with a delicate, fresh strawberry nose. A prominence of red fruits adds to a medium-body leading to a soft rounded finish.

|  |     |      |
|--|-----|------|
| 2018 Rosé d'AnjouLes Ligeriens, Loire Valley, France | 6.5 | 25.5 |
|--|-----|------|

---

Playing the role of our sweeter rosé, but not overtly so at all, with a result that is rather lovely. This blend of 70% Gamay and 30% Grolleau skillfully dodge the pitfalls often associated with off-dry wines. Sure, the sweetness is there, but via careful temperature controlled vinification - the fruit tastes deliciously fresh and natural, evoking memories of picking fresh strawberries on a summers day.

|   |  |    |
|---|--|----|
| 2018 Syrah/Vermentino '1753'Chateau de Campuget, Costières de Nîmes, France |  | 34 |
|---|--|----|

---

Our long-standing house rosé is made by the same Nîmes producer, and whilst it is a delicious example of the region, this is a different animal altogether! An interesting blend of 90% Syrah and 10% Vermentino, a rarely used grape, this lends the wine zesty notes of grapefruit and orange rind, backed by good minerality, aromatic nuances and an invigorating palate of the freshest berry fruit.

|   |  |    |
|---|--|----|
| 2018 Beyaz Kalecik KarasiBlanc de Noir, Kayra Wines, Anatolia, Turkey |  | 36 |
|---|--|----|

---

The Turkish are not generally thought of as big wine-producers, however, their is considered to be the birthplace of wine and is steeped in oenological history. Kayra are at the forefront of modern Turkish winemaking, adopting an ethos that embraces the region's history whilst practising cutting edge techniques. A beautiful pale salmon colour - akin to the best rosés of Provence, with a charming nose bursting with fresh ripe peach, citrus zest and fresh ginger. The palate boasts more of the same zingy aromatics and stonefruit, whilst retaining a succinct acidity that makes the wine literally 'bounce' on the tongue.

